

MLS Consulting Services

What is MLS Consulting?

MLS Consultants answer questions about all facets of librarianship and library work. We bring years of experience and knowledge in a wide range of library backgrounds. MLS Consultants can help library staff solve a difficult problem, train new trustees or act as a liaison or advocate. Give us a call today!

Member Benefits from Consulting

- ❖ One-on-one consulting at your library, via phone or email. MLS Consultants have the knowledge to provide insight on a variety of topics including but not limited to:
 - Advocacy & Legislation
 - Career Services
 - Collection Development
 - Grants
 - HR & Personnel Issues
 - Knowledge Management
 - Marketing Initiatives
 - Organizational Development
 - Outreach
 - Reference
 - Staff Training & Development
 - Strategic Planning
 - Technology Training & Selection
 - And many more...

- ❖ Be connected with other library members through the MLS networking groups http://www.mls.lib.il.us/members/networking_groups.asp.

- ❖ Shape your future with MLS Continuing Education workshops listed at <http://www.librarylearning.info/?LibSys=MLS>. Contact us if you don't see what you want to learn.

Whom to Call

Any consultant can help you with any need. Primary focus areas are noted below each consultant.

Christina Stoll, Consultant Special, School, Youth	stollc@mls.lib.il.us	(630) 734-5117
Kathy Roegge, Consultant Academic, Public, Trustees	roeggek@mls.lib.il.us	(630) 734-5123

For More Information

Visit <http://www.mls.lib.il.us/consulting> or email consultants@mls.lib.il.us to be immediately connected with a member of the Consulting Team.